alleged to be due plaintiff under a contract made between plaintiff and defendant on July 3, 1907, whereby defendant agreed to "assume and bear one-half of the expense then incurred and to be thereafter incurred in the examination, expert-ing, floating and promoting of the "Big Belle" Mining property, plain-BRIDGE BUILDINGThe Southern Pacific company is erecting a steel bridge across the Sacramento river that contains the heaviest swing span of any bridge in the world. This span is feet in length and its weight is 6,200,000 pounds. The entire bridge, however, will weigh more than 10,000,000 pounds when it has all been placed in position upon the heavy concrete piers.There are only two steel bridges in the country that have swing spans that exceed the new Sacramento river bridge in length. One is across the Willamette river and is a part of the Spokane, Portland and Seattle railway system.

Its weight, however, is only 5,400,- 000 pounds, 900,000 pounds less than that of the Sacramento river bridge. The Omaha Terminal company operates a large steel bridge across the Missouri river that has a swing span 520 feet in length, but the steel is of much lighter construction, the weight being only 5,100,000 pounds.The new Sacramento river bridge of the Southern Pacific is a part of the double tracking of the Harriman lines. It will contain not only two tracks for the trains, but a concrete wagon road and automobile road.MEXICO CITY QUIET.MEXICO CITY, Nov. 8.—The capital has resumed its normal appearance and there is no outward indication of the momentous change of administration accompanying the yesterday. The new president was busy all of yesterday receiving congratulations. One of his first official acts was to receive the new

SHIPPED TO EUROPEAt the present time the farmers of Churchill county are shipping out much honey, some of it being shipped to England and Germany.
The three principal shippers are E.
A. Harrigan, J. H. Miller and E. G.
Norton, and they are shipping out more honey this year than any year heretofore. These men state that while much of the honey is made from the blossoms of alfalfa and sweet clover, much more of it is made from the blossoms of the sagebrush. They claim that the sagebrush honey is the best of all.Special Inducement

OF MUCH IMPORTANCE*Deposits, or Part of Them, May Soon Be Exchanged for Bonds Bearing a Good Rate of Interest.Uncle Sam has sent out the printed circular below to all depositors of his Postal Savings banks and it is worthy of careful perusal. The circular dwells at length of the purchase of U. S. bonds with your postal deposits:1. Depositors of the Postal Savings system may exchange the whole or a part of their deposits on January 1, 1912, for United States registered or coupon bonds in denominations of $20, $100, and $500, bearing interest at the rate of 2½ per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and redeemable at the pleasure of the United States after one year from the date of issue, both principal and interest payable 20 years from that date in United States gold coin.2. Postal savings bonds are exempt from all taxes or duties of the United States, as well as from taxation in any form by or under state, municipal, or local authority.Conversion of Deposits.3. Applications for the conversion of deposits into bonds on January 1, 1912, must be received before December 15, 1911, by the postmaster at the depository office where the certificates were issued.
The postmaster will supply an application form which must be made out in triplicate. The depositor must indorse and surrender with his application postal savings certificates covering the amount of the bonds desired, for which the postmaster will give him a receipt. When the postmaster receives the bonds applied for he will notify the depositor and will deliver the bonds on presentation of the receipt for the certificates surrendered.4. The conversion of deposits into bonds at a date less than one year after the certificates began to bear interest forfeits interest on the deposits as in the case of withdrawal for any other purpose.5. Postal savings deposits converted into bonds are not counted as a part of the maximum of $500 allowed one depositor, and there is no limitation on the amount of available postal savings bonds which may be acquired finally by a depositor. The exchange is considered as taking effect on January 1, and a depositor who has applied to convert into bonds all or part of the maximum balance of $500 may deposit an additional amount in January, though the bonds may not yet have been delivered.6. Postal savings bonds can be procured only by the conversion of postal savings deposits and will not be issued to persons who are not depositors. They may be sold or assigned to any person, however, by the holder, and when a registered bond is assigned a new bond will be issued in the name of the owner.Registered and Coupon Bonds.7. The depositor's application must indicate whether bonds are desired in registered or coupon form. Coupon bonds are preferable for a depositor who intends to hold them for a short time only and who has ample facilities for their safekeeping. These bonds are payable to bearer, and the title will pass by delivery without indorsement. Interest on coupon bonds is collected by means of interest coupons, which are detached by the holder as they become due.Registered bonds are preferable for persons intending to hold them for a considerable period, and they differ from coupon bonds in the following respects:(a) They have inscribed upon their face the names of the persons to whom they are issued.(b) They are payable only to the persons to whom issued or their assigns.(c) The ownership of registered bonds can be transferred only by assignment in proper form.Assignment of Bonds.8. Registered bonds are assigned by the use of a form printed on the back, properly dated and acknowledged. When the assignment is made by mark, it must be witnessed by at least one person other than the officer before whom it is made. A ledger account is opened in the treasury department at Washington with each holder of one or more registered bonds, and when such bonds are assigned they should be transmitted by the new owner to the secretary of the treasury for transfer on the booksof the department. Registered bonds can not be exchanged for coupon bonds. Coupon bonds may be converted into registered bonds, without charge, at the request of the holder.Assignment by Minors.9. Under the regulations of the treasury department a minor can not assign registered bonds without the consent of a duly appointed guardian or trustee, evidence of whose authority must be submitted.
A minor has the right to convert his postal savings certificates, into registered bonds, but if he should desire to assign the bonds during his minority he must comply with this regulation. This difficulty does not exist in the case of coupon bonds, which are transferred by mere delivery.Payment of Interest on Bonds.10. Interest on registered bonds is paid by checks drawn at the treasury department in favor of the registered holder. These checks are sent by mail to the postoffice address of the holder, and the holder of a registered bond should notify the secretary of the treasury of any change in his postoffice address at least 15 days before the interest falls due. Checks for interest on registered bonds, as well as interest coupons detached from coupon bonds, are payable on presentation at the United States treasury or at the office of any assistant treasurer of the United States.
Interest checks and coupons covering interest on postal savings bonds may be cashed by postmasters under the same conditions as other government paper.Bonds Lost or Destroyed.11. Payment on registered bonds that have been lost or stolen may be stopped by notifying the secretary of the treasury at Washington.
If coupon bonds are lost the government does not undertake to protect the owner against the wrongful holder, but recognizes the bearer only. The owner has recourse only to such means as he could use to recover any other valuable property. When bonds, either registered or coupon, have been destroyed wholly or in part, or defaced, a claim may be filed with the secretary of the treasury under certain prescribed conditions for their replacement. Such claims will not be allowed for coupons which have been detached from coupon bonds.Information Relating to Ownership.12. United States bonds are issued, transferred, and redeemed under such regulations as the secretary of the treasury may prescribe.
Requests by holders for additional information after the delivery of the bonds should be addressed to the secretary of the treasury (Division of Loans and Currency), Washington, D. C.FRANK H. HITCHCOCK, Postmaster General.ATTEMPS MADE TO DIS-CREDIT NEVADA SPUDSThe Sparks Tribune in commenting upon the attack on Dayton potatoes, says:"Time and again the California producers have attempted to discredit the productions of Nevada, agricultural and otherwise. The Dayton potatoes have a national reputation. At one time, ex-Senator Jones of Nevada being short of spuds, telegraphed to Dayton for a sack of Dayton's best. He got the goods by express. It is within the memory of the writer years ago when you could not get a potato in the San Francisco market that was not honeycombed by the ell worm. If there is such a thing now in our Nevada potatoes, it is a heritage from California.
Planted with malice aforethought, the writer knoweth not. It is jealousy all the same."It is also hinted that an effort is being made to corner the potato ket.THE TONOPAH LUMBER COThe largest stock of all kinds
